Dear Sir:

I am most appreciative of your letter of April 16 and your very kind remarks concerning my recent address before the Los Angeles World Affairs Council.

To know that your evaluation of my remarks was so high gives me a real boost!

Faithfully,

Dear Allen:

I have just read the address you gave before the Los Angeles World Affairs Council on 13 April 1956. This is without question the finest thing I have read on the Russian situation. I hope it receives wide distribution, not only in this country, but throughout the world.

I congratulate you on the fine address.

Sincerely,
